New Delhi, the 20th April 1966

S.R.O. 87—The following draft of rules further to amend the Military Lands and Cantonments Service (Class I and Class II) Rules, 1951, which the Central Government proposes to make in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1), read with clause (cc) of sub-section (2), of section 280 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (2 of 1924), is hereby published as required by the said sub-section (1), for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby, and notice is hereby given that the said draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 1st of June, 1966

Any objection or suggestion which may be received from any persons with respect to the said draft before the date so specified will be considered by the Central Government

Draft Rules

1 (1) These rules may be called the Military Lands and Cantonments Service (Class I and Class II) Amendment Rules, 1966

2 In the Military Lands and Cantonments Service (Class I and Class II) Rules, 1951,—

(1) for rule 17, the following rule shall be substituted, namely —

“17 (a) A member of the Service other than those referred to in rule 18, shall be eligible for pension in accordance with the Liberalised Pension Rules in force at that time,

(b) Unless provided otherwise, qualifying service of a member of the Service for purposes of pension shall commence from the date of his substantive appointment to the service,

Provided that in the case of a member of the Service appointed initially on probation the period of probation shall also count as qualifying service,

(c) Any period of service under the Central Government rendered by a member of the Service prior to his appointment to the Service shall count as qualifying service under these rules to the extent to which such service would have counted as qualifying service for pension, had the individual continued in that appointment, provided the service is otherwise continuous,

(ii) in sub-rule (b) of rule 18, the word “substantive” occurring before “appointment” may be deleted
